

COMMISSION FOR UNIVERSITY EDUCATION

ACCREDITATION REPORT

ON

MULTI MEDIA UNIVERSITY OF KENYA

VOLUME 1

FEBRUARY 2013

Abstract

The Multimedia University started in 1948 as the Central Training School of the then East African Post and Telecommunication Corporation. In 1992, it was upgraded to the Kenya College of Communication Technology (KCCT). It was upgraded to become the Multimedia University College, a constituent College of Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology, under legal Notice No. 155 of 2008. This was preceded by a technical inspection by the Commission for University Education in April 2008.

The Commission for University Education inspected Multimedia University College in January 2012 and was satisfied that the institution had met minimum requirements in governance, Academic Programmes, and Academic resources. The Commission for University Education recommended that Multimedia be awarded a Charter to become the Multimedia University.

This accreditation report is in two (2) volumes:

- a) Volume 1 contains the Charter, Historical background, philosophical and the accreditation process that led to award of Charter; and
- b) Volume 2 contains the programmes offered by the University.
